

Q3(b) :

Degree 3.

Using `interp_coeffs()` is better , because it is faster with a simpler loop, rather than calling `Lagrange_N()` again and again.

Q3(e) :

The four-point Newton–Cotes is fourth-order accurate, the error decreases proportionally to $1/N^4$